

To be an active and responsible Central and Executive Committee Member:

- As a Democrat, vote in every election
- Attend the annual Reorganization Meeting
- Attend Executive Committee Meetings regularly to stay informed about all candidates and issues
- Ensure your family, friends and neighbors are registered to vote — and vote in every election. Provide ballot registration forms to those who are not, and instruct them how to register (or update their registration)
- Get to know the Democrats in your precinct, communicate year-round and offer them opportunities to be more involved

Suggestions to be an active and enthusiastic Democrat:

- Be positive and supportive of Democrats
- Know why you are a Democrat
- Know why you are involved in Democratic politics and why you believe others should be involved, too. People will ask!
- Make sure family, friends and neighbors vote in every election — as Democrats!
- Recruit Democrats to volunteer for campaigns, invite them to Democratic meetings, fundraisers, events and/or other activities.
- Organize your recruited Democrats to form a team
- Assist in finding Democrats to fill vacant precinct seats who will be active, enthusiastic members.
- Always be on the lookout for Democrats who will be good candidates for elective office!

Suggestions to support all Democratic candidates and their campaigns:

- Be informed about all Democratic candidates and issues. Know the backgrounds, strengths and qualifications of all Democratic candidates running for office — locally, state wide and nationally. Know what the issues are and why they are important.
- Assist with gathering signatures for Democratic candidates by carrying petitions
- Assist Democratic candidates to find yard sign locations
- Participate in candidate campaigns by canvassing or phone/text banking
- Attend fundraisers and/or other events benefiting Democratic candidates and the FCDP
- Actively share posts regarding Democratic candidates and issues on social media
- Write letters to your local newspaper editor that support Democratic positions and/or candidates
- Provide absentee/early voting ballot application forms to those in your precinct

Support all Fairfield County Democratic Party activities:

- Attend fundraisers sponsored by the Fairfield County Democratic Party and as many Democratic candidates events as possible
- Volunteer to help your Fairfield County Democratic Party with special events and/or activities.
